THE CASSAND -Yesterday evening sever and directors and members of the Monumental Construction Company, met in Bal-timore to discuss plans and projects for the completion of the steamer Howard Cas-Cut in changes in the machinery, and other steps looking towards that olj ict. were discussed and decided upon. What these plans are will not be divulged until they have been ratified by the special committee of five, ampointed at the recent stockholders' meeting, and the board of directors. A meeting of those two bodies will take place this evening.

OPERA HOUSE .- The Baltimore American says of Forget-ma not, the play to be given here to-morrow night: "The play pictures some in which all the phases of a wicked woman's temporary triumph as well as the climax of her subsequent fall and ruin, are portrayed. It bristles with intrigue and possion, and calls for dramatic talent of the nighest order. Miss Comercal's acting will compare favorably with Miss Conblau's, and in many parts she has a better concention of the character and pure even more force in it than Miss Coghiar."
